

«Ular» exhibition gallery

On December 6, 2019, the exhibition gallery "Ular" in Almaty hosted an exhibition of creative works by Nurlan Kalenuly, a teacher of special disciplines of the College at Kazgas satayev. The young artist, based on the European experience of masters of easel painting and the centuries-old national tradition, reflects on the native land and its history by means of fine art.

In 2015, Sataev N. K. was accepted into the ranks of the Union of young artists of Kazakhstan, and in 2019, he was elected Chairman of The Board of the Union of young artists and is actively engaged in public activities.

The artist in his work tells about the Kazakh land, and by his own means, passing everything through himself. The exhibition featured more than 30 works by the young artist.
