

On November 22, 2019, at 10 a.m. a scientific and practical international seminar on the theme 'Interdisciplinary integration in the implementation of the competitive approach in the era of globalization' will be held. During this seminar, I conducted a master class on portraiture.

