

Musical evening “Uly khalyktyn-uly Abay”

The celebration of the 175th anniversary of Abay Kunanbayev is one of the important events in the new history of independent Kazakhstan, aimed at familiarizing with the historical consciousness of people and promoting the spiritual culture of the country in a global format.

Abay was not only a wise man but also a wise teacher, a poet recognized throughout the world. We have to thank him for the fact of spiritual support, which is worthy of the personality of Abay. In this regard, in order to popularize the wisdom of Abay the literary - musical evening “Uly khalyktyn-uly Abay” was organized in KazGASA on November 13, 2019. A lot of students took part in the event. The sage was able to rise to an unprecedented height of the national spirit. He is an example for our younger generation. At the evening they recited poems of Abay, an exhibition was held. Abay's songs were performed, verses and words of edification of Abay were read.
