

Participation in the seminar "International Perspectives for Professional Development in Higher Education"

The expansion and deepening of pedagogical experience takes place endlessly. It is especially actualized in the modern period of approbation of educational approaches of various national schools. In this connection, participation of acting professor of DA Kozbagarova N.J. in seminar "International Perspectives for Professional Development in Higher Education", which was held on August 19-23, 2019 at Suleyman Demirel University became very important in the process of improving pedagogical skills.

The seminar was attended by lecturers from Birmingham University of the United Kingdom, Mr. Hassan Shikoh, and Ms. Sophia Butt, Programme Coordinator, University of C. Demirel Madina Ashirimbetova etc. Topics discussed included: correlation of learning goals and learning outcomes, reflective learning, constructive pedagogy, Harvard citation system. It was updated: development of critical thinking, social and emotional intelligence in students, self-analysis and development. It was recommended to include into the syllabuses of disciplines a regulation about violation of academic honesty, which is considered to be a crime!

Kozbagarova N.J., Acting Professor of DA